

3 Girls Ago

Written and Composed By: Anthony Holloway

Verse

I still see her in the porch light glow
Sunday sundress, barefoot on the stone
I had dreams the night couldn't hold
She just wanted love and growing old

Pre-Chorus

Thought the road would lead me right
But every turn just lost her light

Chorus

She was dreaming of a simple life
Quiet mornings, being somebody's wife
I played the fool and let her down
Turned her smiles into leaving town
She was my one, I didn't know
Lost the love of my life three girls ago

Verse

I've heard "I love you" said too soon
Under bar lights with cheap perfume
But none of them have felt the same
As hearing her say my name

Pre-Chorus

I thought one time I'd get it right
But none of them could match her light

Chorus

She was dreaming of a simple life
Quiet mornings, being somebody's wife
If I'd known then what I know now
I'd have laid my restless heart somehow
She was my one, I let her go

Lost the love of my life three girls ago

Bridge

I caught her smile in a photograph
Took me straight down that broken path
She's moved on, I'm still the same
Just a song whispering her name

Chorus

She was dreaming of a simple life
Quiet mornings, being somebody's wife
I let forever slip right through
And I'm the one that lost that truth
She was my one — now I know
Lost the love of my life three girls ago

Outro

She was my one, and now I know
Lost the love of my life three girls ago
