

Always There

Written and Composed By: Anthony Holloway

Verse

I was just a boy with shoes too wide,
Trying to stand tall, but I'd stumble and slide.
Life felt heavy, the road too high,
But steady hand kept me by your side.

Pre-Chorus

When the dark grew deep, when the light took flight,
I heard that voice, steady, soft, and right.

Chorus

And you were there,
Through the shaking, through the tears,
Always there, guiding past my fears.
I didn't walk alone,
No matter how far I strayed,
You were always there.

Verse

Years rolled on, I wore that cap and gown,
Dreams in my pocket, boots on shaky ground.
The road ahead was calling my name,
But it was you that made me brave.

Pre-Chorus

In the crowd, through the cheers that day,
Your quiet faith showed me the way.

Chorus

And you were there,
In the moment I broke free,
Always there, believing in the best of me.
I didn't walk alone,

Even stepping out unknown,
You were always there.

Bridge

Now the earth is quiet, the ground is cold,
I whisper stories will never get told.
But the wind, it stirs, and I swear I hear,
That same soft voice I've known all these years.

Chorus

And you are still there,
Though I'm standing here alone,
I feel you stronger than I've ever known.
Still know your around,
Standing sacred ground,
You are always there — guiding me home.

Outro

Always there...
In the whisper of the air...
Always there...
