

Cheap Date

Written and Composed By: Anthony Holloway

Verse

Date night, got a table booked at nine
Truck's idling, I was right on time
Then you walked down in that little black dress
Dropped my keys trying to catch my breath

Pre-Chorus

You laughed like, "Boy, we ain't getting far"
I said, "No ma'am, not the way you are"

Chorus

Let that table wait, let the whole town fade
One look at you and all the plans got remade
Red wine waiting, but your kiss came fast
Shadows on the wall while the minutes pass
Your hands on me, my hands on your waist
Baby, turns out we're a cheap date

Verse

That reservation lit up my phone
You smiled like you already know
My jacket's now lying on the floor
But I ain't reaching for it anymore

Pre-Chorus

You whispered, "Baby, let's stay right here"
I said, "Best thing I've heard all year"

Chorus

Let the phone go dark, let the world unwind
I've got nothing left but you on my mind
You give me that look, I'm locking the door
One more kiss and I ain't thinking no more
Your hands on me, my hands on your waist
Baby, turns out we're a cheap date

Bridge

We could still go, but the mood is set
Ain't found a reason to leave here yet
That clock kept ticking, we didn't care
'Cause everything I want is right here

Chorus

Let the stars keep turning, let the city glow
That table downtown don't need to know
Million-dollar view in this living room
And I wouldn't trade a second here with you
Your hands on me, my hands on your waist
Baby, turns out we're a cheap date

Outro

Yeah, we're a cheap date
Little black dress, no time to waste
Baby, turns out we're a cheap date
