

Just To Get It Right

Written and Composed By: Anthony Holloway

Verse

I thought love was supposed to burn
Something you suffer through and earn
Wasted my twenties right in my prime
Mistaking all that pain for a good time

Pre-Chorus

Then you came along, simple and slow
Rewrote everything I used to know

Chorus

Ain't no slammed doors, ain't no goodbye
Ain't no laying awake asking why
Ain't gotta chase, ain't gotta prove
Ain't second-guessing every move
This love didn't come with a fight
I had to get it so wrong, just to get it right

Verse

Learned when it's time to walk away
When I should give a damn and stay
Always chasing what was bound to break
Stopped blaming myself for every mistake

Pre-Chorus

Now looking back it's easy to see
Knowing you bring the best right out of me

Chorus

Ain't no guessing what's in your head
Ain't reading into what you said
Ain't no reason I need to run
Ain't scared that all the good is done
This love didn't come with a fight
I had to get it so wrong, just to get it right

Bridge

I'm in deeper than I've ever been
And I'd choose this all over again
Healing Every scar, every hard goodbye
If it meant I still ended up by your side

Chorus

Ain't no question about where I stand
Ain't no doubt when I hold your hand
Ain't no impulse to turn and run
Ain't thinking twice, I know you're the one
What we got is worth every fight
I had to get it so wrong, just to get it right

Outro

You were worth the wait
Just to get it right
