

Never Said Mine

Written and Composed By: Anthony Holloway

Verse

Look at this room... it's so quiet now
The storm passed through, and the dust settled down
I see the empty space where you used to sleep
And I'm still holding onto promises we couldn't keep

Pre-Chorus

You left a fracture that time cannot mend
I know how it breaks... but I don't know the end

Chorus

You got over us... I never got over you
You found somebody new... I'm still finding my way through
You crossed the line
Yeah, you said goodbye...
But I never said... mine.

Verse

My friends tell me that it's time to move on
They don't see the ghost that I face in the dark Fanning the flame of a dead little spark

Pre-Chorus

You drew the border and left me behind
You only spoke for your heart, not mine

Chorus

You deleted our past... I'm still living in it
You don't even look back... I'm still lost in the distance
You crossed the line
Yeah, you said goodbye...
But I never said... mine.

Bridge

Because loving someone means you gotta let 'em go
Even when it's breaking everything you know
You said your peace, and you walked out the door
But I'm still living in the love we had before

(Ohhhh...) I'm still standing in the wreckage!
(Yeahhh...) You tore the page out! You burned the bridge down!
But nobody told my heart... nobody told my heart!

Chorus

You found your peace... I'm still making sense of it
You learned how to stop loving me... I never learned the rest of it
You crossed the line...
Yeah, you said goodbye...
But I never said... mine.

Outro

...never said mine.
