

Passenger Princess

Written and Composed By: Anthony Holloway

Verse

Phone plugged in, ready to roll...
Hijackin' the vibe, takin' control...
I Was Cravin' some Waylon, maybe some Cash...
But she's leavin' her glitter all over my dash...

Pre-Chorus

One tap on that touchscreen glass,
The Man in Black is a thing of the past.

Chorus

Air-mic in hand, head bobbin' wild,
Front seat rockin' like a sold-out crowd.
Five-part harmony on the radio,
Got my old-school heart lettin' go.
Leanin' on over for a red-light kisses
Out ridin' with my Passenger Princess

Verse

Hittin' those "oh-oh" R&B runs,
Eyes closed tight, havin' her fun.
Used to the fiddle and the steel guitar
But she's kissin' the notes like a superstar

Pre-Chorus

One hand on the wheel, one hand on her knee,
Lettin' that rhythm run wild and free.

Chorus

Doin' her dances, hair flyin' wild,
Windows down, she's singin' loud.
Lip-sync queen, she steals the scene,
Prettiest thing I've ever seen.
Leanin' on over for a red-light kisses
Out ridin' with my Passenger Princess
My Passenger Princess.

Bridge

The boys at the shop give me hell for this,
Callin' me out for a pop-star kiss.
But watchin' her glow in that dashboard light,
Proves the radio's finally right.

Chorus

Burnin' up miles, singin' out loud,
Two-lane rollin', feelin' proud.
Boy Band rhythm, bench-seat world,
My favorite song's that ninety-nine girl.
She's my world — wouldnt miss this —
Out ridin' with my Passenger Princess

Outro

Yeah, she's the star and I'm just the witness,
My Passenger Princess.
